2018 Collection
“The Storm”
Embracing the storm...
Wrap yourself in the raw, beautiful wilderness of the Irish coastline...
Where nature is not a place to visit, it is home.....
At one with the elements by the rocky shore of Keem Bay, Achill island ......

......The place of isolation can become the place of revelation....
Cosy up against chill winds in supremely soft knitwear....
There was no mercy in that November wind,
no grace in the waves, only wrath and tempest.....

- John Dryden
The cloud that had gathered since dawn, dark and unyielding, smothered the winter sun.....

- Angela Abraham
